PROJECT BACKGROUND

Portland State University's transportation students in engineering and planning are ready to support your idea with their expertise. We are looking for public places where small changes to the streetscape will make a big difference. This is an opportunity for your community organization to partner with us to plan your pop-up project.

--->Two to four larger-scale projects will be handed off to planning and communication students in Spring 2020 who will develop outreach and engagement plans for June 2020.

--->Depending on capacity and need, one to two of those projects will then go through an engineering phase in Winter 2020 to produce a traffic plan for June 2021.

6. Where are you proposing a pop-up project? ***

7. What time frame and time of year do you have in mind for the project? *

8. What is the place like currently? *

9. What ideas do you have for re-imagining this space? *

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Please note that Better Block PSU does NOT offer funding or project implementation capacity. Our program offers the ability to connect your idea with the planning and engineering expertise of Portland State University transportation students.

10. Do you know of any existing partnerships or events that could help leverage this project? *

11. How will volunteers be recruited? *

12. Do you know of any local leaders and champions of this idea? *

13. How will all community stakeholders be engaged in the process? *

14. What are some ways to make the space inviting to all? *

OBJECTIVES AND PERFORMANCE MEASURES
